

MERRY CHRISTMAS KSHSTA!

2006 Has Gone...

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! I hope you all had a safe and memorable riding season. I do want to apologize for the lack of Kansas-specific activities. I'm still learning this whole 'leadership' thing!

I promise we'll have 100% more activities in 2007 (that'd be, um, two!)

STAR 06 was amazing in Colorado, and '07 looks to be even better, back East again. I made it to one Arkansas event, thank you Robert, the Byway Boogie. Rain, rain and more rain, but great riding nonetheless, and great friends.

I've talked to a lot of people about the HSTA, one of the comments that keeps coming up is that it's hard to break into. The people who attend the events are age-old friends, and often neglect to introduce themselves to a new face. My goal is to meet someone new at every event. How about you?

One way to meet people, even if you aren't able to make the events is to sign up for the e-mail list and check out the Kansas website. The National e-mail list info is on <http://www.ridehsta.com/> and the Kansas site is <http://kshsta.mylanders.com/>

I wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a happy and safe New Year!
